

Photo by Andrew Carroll

“WAR COMES HOME: THE LEGACY” EXHIBIT
July 9 through August 16
Lower Level 2

An exhibit of correspondences by troops and their families revealing how war shapes lives, families and communities. Letters representing nearly every U.S. conflict offer insights into the emotions and challenges facing veterans and their families.

Opening Program with curator & bestselling author Andrew Carroll
Thursday, July 9, 6 p.m.
Meeting Room A

Carroll will discuss the exhibit and read from original letters. People are encouraged to bring their own wartime letters, which will be added to the collection.

Central Library
Los Angeles Public Library
630 W. Fifth St.
(213) 228-7000

For ADA accommodations, please call (213) 228-7430, at least 72 hours prior to the event.

