CALIFORNIA Mexican American Veterans Memorial

The California Mexican American Memorial was first conceived during World War II by mothers from the Sacramento Valley who sought to honor the memory of Latino soldiers who fought and died. The memorial was finally dedicated in 1975 to honor Latino Soldiers, Sailors, Marines and Airmen who have died protecting our country.

The memorial will be restored and improved, bringing renewed dignity and respect to those who served. The new memorial will allow visitors to more meaningfully absorb the rich cultural history and military service contributions of Latino veterans since California entered the Union in 1850.
